Dr. sails along the shore all the way, passing Maylan and Dr. Cummings are doing good work in athletics and sports and all are looking forward to Saturday afternoon which is Field day. Dr. Cummings 9.30 and two, returning will leave Old Orchard pier at 11 and 5.30. The tickets will add to the pier without extra pated.

To follow the field day the management have wisely provided a popular concert with a reader and whistling soloist.

Last evening we listened to one of those men who inspire us to higher living and thinking, Dr. Nathaniel Butler who lectured on "Aims and Methods" in the "Study of Literature." The entire audience were interested for the speaker appealed to all. and especially to teachers. This afternoon the ladies held sway, the entire board of officers of the Maine State Federation being present. Mrs. Briggs presided. Interesting reports were heard from Mrs. Stevens of Saturday club of Brunswick, where the State Federation is to meet the last of September, Mrs. Lyman Abbott of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Thayer of Warren, Mrs. Eames of Woburn, Mass., and Miss Inez Blanchard, president of W. L. U. of Portland. Speeches by Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Porter of Caribou, vice president State Federation, Mrs. B. F. Eaton of Skowhegan, treasurer and others were helpful and inspiring.

Today's arrivals: Clara A. Burgess Newtonville, Mass.; Alice E. Hinckley, Auburndale, Mass.; Mrs. G. H. Shedd, No. Conway, N. H.; Mrs. E. C. Carrasco, Newport, R. I.; Mrs. F. H. ALL SERENE AT MONTAUK.

Washington, August 12—General Greely today received a despatch from the signal officer in charge of that corps at Montauk stating "Everything moving splendidly, our camp completed; men all well and comfortable; have plenty of wood; work thoroughly systematized. Have detailed stenographer, telegrapher and clerk to General Young. Have taken complete possession of telegraph office here; that a moment's delay on government business. Surveyors and fraughtsmen at work on map. Have strung four miles of wire; Young's headquarters, General Randall's headquarters; corps hospital and railroad office now in telegraphic communication."

SIGNAL CORPS IN GOOD HEALTH Washington, August 12.—The signal corps has been particularly fortunate in the preservation of the health of its men during the war. Their operations have during the war. Their operations have been wherever the army was, amid the slokness of Santiago as well as elsewhere, and yet the death by disease of none of the men has been reported. One officer died of fever, but none of the men from disease. Two have been killed. MAINE CLUB WOMEN.

Meeting of the Executive Board of State Federation

NEW STEAMERS TO MAINE.

The New York Times says: The Man hattan Steamship company began yester day a regular steamer service from this port to Maine. It is intended to have two steamers a week on the Bangor service and one direct to Eastport. A line to Portland, and another to Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, are also contemplated. The present steamers are small freight be but three new passenger and fre steamers are to be built.

BOY MISSING.

Harold F., the twelve year old son of Dr. Charles A. Eastman, 76 High street, Charlestown, Mass., has been missing from his home since Tuesday, August 9. He was dressed in knee pants of light color white sailor waist with black anchor figure and his name is on wrong side of collar, and old brown cap. He is light complexion. Any information of his whereabouts will be appreciated by his CASCO BAY STEAMBOAT CO. AT OAK STREET CHURCH.

Mrs. Harriet D. Collins of Rhode Island, who is spending the summer with her sister on Diamond island, will preach at the Friends' church Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Mrs. Collins is the Preceptress of Oak Grove Seminary and has the reputation of being a very pleas-

CLEVELAND PARTY AT BAR HAR

Bar Harbor, August 12.—The steam yacht Oneida arrived today from the westward having on board as guests of Commodore Benedict, former President Cleveland, former secretary of the Treasury Carlisle and Mrs. Carlisle, and former postmaster General Wilson. The Oneida will probably remain in port several days.

Boston, August 12.—The Hon. Charles Allen, senior associate justice of the Supreme court has handed his resignation to Gov. Wolcott, but it has not yet been formally acted upon by the executive council. Judge Allen's resignation will be a surprise to the bar for, while he is in his 72nd year, and is eligible, for re-tirement on balf pay. under the recent law, still he has enjoyed activity and vigor both in body and mind.
